DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendments and arguments are convincing.

Examiner's Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Joseph Butscher on 12/9/04.

In Claim 28.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 16-17, 20-27 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As per Claim 22.

The prior art, specifically Castile ('502) in view of Cohen ('187) further in view of Verdun ('802) or Tashiro ('836) do not disclose or fairly teach:

a jukebox causing the processor, when no song is playing on the computer jukebox, to generate a user attract mode; the memory further including instructions for: causing the processor to respond to compressed digital song data and to song identity data, which may be received by the communication interface of the computer jukebox, to control the storage of the received compressed digital song data and the received song identity data in the data storage unit to create an updated library of songs stored in the computer jukebox; and causing the management station processor to compress and transmit a subset of the digital song data and transmit corresponding song identity data to at least one selected computer jukebox to update the library of songs in the computer jukebox.

As per Claim 27.

The prior art, specifically Castile ('502) in view of Cohen ('187) further in view of Verdun ('802) or Tashiro ('836) do not disclose or fairly teach:

a jukebox causing the processor, when no song is playing on the computer jukebox, to generate a user attract mode; the memory further including instructions for: causing the processor to respond to compressed digital song data and to song identity data, which may be received by the communication interface of the computer jukebox, to control the storage of the received compressed digital song data and the received song identity data in the data storage unit to create an updated library of songs stored in the computer jukebox.

As per Claims 16.

The prior art, specifically Castile ('502) in view of Cohen ('187) further in view of Verdun ('802) or Tashiro ('836) do not disclose or fairly teach:

a computer jukebox causing the processor, when no song is playing on the computer jukebox to generate a user attract mode wherein digitally-stored song associated graphic images are shown on the display.

The claims that depend from the above allowed claims are allowable for the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
